

Dr. Francois Lefrere

François LEFRERE is a French hospital Practitioner, Former Head of clinic of the Universities, Assistant of the Hospitals. He is a Medical Physician in Clinical Hematology. Currently, he is responsible in the department of hem apheresis and cell Therapy in Necker Hospital (Paris). He obtained a Graduate degree in Biology, in Cell Therapy and Transfusion. He is also in charge of education in René Descartes University (Paris). His activities and researches concerned various hematologic malignancies and auto-immune diseases but his main activity focused on progress in the hematopoietic stem cell mobilization and their use in various indications especially in the area of genic therapy in collaboration with the Pr Marina Cavazzana. Dr F LEFRERE is associated to approximatively on hundred publications.